

the groove

a celebration of God's gift in you for all current and prospective artists at parkview friday, september 16, 2005
7:00 pm • parkview auditorium

The Groove is your sweet spot; the place you belong. Every time you pick up the brush or don your costume or take the guitar out of its case, you're in the Groove—and you feel God's pleasure. You've discovered the place where your passion and God's heart converge.

On September 16, you're invited to Parkview's annual celebration God's creativity in you. Come party if you've discovered your Groove. Come seeking if you're still trying to find it. Since you're passionate about creating to honor the Creator, come join the Groove. It's where God always meant you to be.
